

BLECHINGLEY AMATEUR DRAMATIC SOCIETY

presents a Performance with Scripts

of

"LITTLE LAMBS EAT IVY"

A Comedy in Three Acts

by

NOEL LANGLEY

Produced by BETTY BRISTOW

BLECHINGLEY VILLAGE HALL

SATURDAY, 17th MAY, 1975.

8.00 p.m.

Admission Programme

Price 30p.

75
No.

SYNOPSIS OF SCENES

The action of the play takes place in the living room of Lady Buckering's house in Regents Park.

ACT I - SATURDAY MORNING

ACT II - 8 p.m. THAT EVENING

ACT III - LATE THE SAME EVENING

-----O-----

CHARACTERS IN ORDER OF APPEARANCE:

Dougall Pitchford
(Essie's son-in-law)

Essie, Lady Buckering
Corder

Clifford Magill

Bicky
(Essie's youngest daughter)

Nurse Fynegar

Gerda Marks
(Essie's second daughter)

Wilfred Marks
(Gerda's husband)

Catherine
(Essie's third daughter)

Roland Wayne

Doctor Drew

A Policeman

Geoff Cowperthwaite

Paddy Martin
Stanley Hurrell

John Illsley

Felicity Lund

Wendy Preston

Valerie Faulkner

George Cordery

Frances Hodges

Ian Shearing

Tom Bouch

-----O-----

Front of House Manager

John Buck