ACT II: Later that night

In this wickedly amusing play, by two master craftsmen of comedy, Harriet, a divorcee living in an elegant flat in Brighton, solves her financial problems by entertaining two married gentlemen callers on different days of the week. The scheme faces collapse when her friend Anne, whose marriage is tottering, arrives at the flat hotly pursued by her husband, one of Harriet's lovers is confined to Harriet's bed with a sprained ankle, and the second lover turns up unexpectedly, closely followed by two irate wives in search of their itinerant husbands!

Special preview for charity groups

BLETCHINGLEY Amateur Dramatic Society is holding a special preview of its next production for local charity groups.

Bletchingly Village Hall will be rearranged to give disabled members of the audience the chance to enjoy the bedroom farce, Tea for Two.

The plot revolves around Harriet, a seductive and attractive divorcee, who solves her financial problems by entertaining two married gentlemen on different days of the week.

All goes well until the unexpected arrival of Harriet's old friend, Anne, coincides with one of Harriet's lovers breaking his leg and being forced to stay at her flat.

Add to this the arrival of her other lover, two irate wives and her drunken husband and you have a recipe for a plethora of twists, surprises, plots and sub-plots.

Any charity group that wishes to take a party to the show should contact producer Mr Bobb Gill, tel: 0737 643556.

Tickets are also available for performances on June 14 and 15.
