

Thank You.

Enormous thanks are due tonight to all those who are performing in our concert.

We are also grateful to the conductors, organists, accompanists, sound controller and all those that have encouraged our younger performers to take part.

We give thanks for the wonderful spirit within our community and are very proud of the rich talent within it.

Bletchingley Celebrates

June 11th 2016

A Concert for the Village by the Village in St Mary's Church

We are celebrating the Queen's 90th birthday and give thanks to her for her service and commitment to our country.

She is hoping that the important values of Charity, Community and Celebration will be at the heart of our festivities this weekend.

The choir of St Catherine's school will gently welcome us before the concert begins
