

Bletchingley Players are proud to have as our Patron
DAME JUDI DENCH

Bletchingley Players – formerly BADS (Bletchingley Amateur Dramatic Society)
– have been entertaining villagers for nearly 50 years – staging a wide range of productions from farce to serious drama and evenings of comedy and entertainment.

WHY NOT JOIN US?

Bletchingley Players stage two productions each year in May and October. We are always pleased to welcome new members whether they want to act, direct, help backstage, build sets or get involved with lighting, sound, props or just join in the sociability and help out front of house.

SPECIAL NOTICE

Bletchingley Players were intending to bring you "The Sunshine Boys" a comedy by Neil Simon. However, despite applying for a performing licence months ago, we have not received permission to stage the play, so have had to withdraw it. This Murder Mystery play is being staged over two nights only as a substitution. We apologise to all our loyal Patrons and hope to bring you the "Sunshine Boys" in May 2015.
