

Bletchingley Players are proud to have as our Patron
DAME JUDI DENCH

Bletchingley Players – formerly BADS (Bletchingley Amateur Dramatic Society) – have been entertaining villagers for over 50 years – staging a wide range of productions from farce to serious drama and evenings of comedy and entertainment.

WHY NOT JOIN US?

Bletchingley Players stage two productions each year in May and October. We are always pleased to welcome new members whether they want to act, direct, help backstage, build sets or get involved with lighting, sound, props or just join in the sociability and help out front of house.

Who Killed the Director?

by Chris Martin

October 14th & 15th
Bletchingley Village Hall

Curtain up at 8.00 pm

20p

Our next production... "The Dixie Swim Club" will be on Thursday, Friday and Saturday 18th, 19th and 20th of May 2017.

The play follows the lives of five women through three decades. They meet up each year for a reunion of the college swimming club to which they all belonged. A poignant and funny drama for all the family.
