Helping young families under stress

Home-Start is a voluntary organisation in which volunteers offer regular support, friendship and practical help to young families under stress in their own homes, helping to prevent family crisis and breakdown, and emphasising the pleasures of family life. Home-Start provides a breathing space for parents where there is at least one child under the age of 5, and elbowroom for many professionals.

Established in 1973 we are now celebrating our Silver Jubilee. There are now over 200 schemes in the UK with others with the British Forces Overseas and in many other countries. Within Surrey there has been a rapid growth. Only 3 years ago there were 2 schemes in Surrey and now there are 10, the most local being Redhill & Reigate, and Epsom, Ewell & Banstead which includes the surrounding areas of Hooley, Kingswood, Tadworth, Woodmansterne, etc..

Home-Start volunteers have all had parenting experience themselves and offer around 3 hours a week to a family. Schemes always welcome new volunteers and provide free training to prepare them for home-based visiting.

May we thank you for your support tonight.
